Provincial Circular MSFS - EAP- JK.31

March 25, 2015

Beloved Confreres, I wish you all a very Happy Feast of Annunciation.

The Solemnity of Annunciation: From THE LEAST TO THE BEST - the way of God

God seeks the least ones for his great plans! Contrary to the expectations of the Israelites who wished for powerful liberator and saviour, God reveals his plan in a very unique manner. The people of the Old Testament thought that a saviour would come. But the manner in which God brought it to actualization was different. He sought out the least and brought out the most. The LEAST here is the young Mary; the MOST is the Saviour of the world - the Son of God.

From the LEAST TO THE BEST is a principle that runs in the Christian spirituality.

- We have several examples in the history of salvation. From Mary the maid to the Mother of God; from 12 illiterate men - the Apostles - to the well established reality of Catholic Church; from the weak and sinful men and women to the glorious saints etc. David was never considered as candidate to be anointed as King! Yet he was chosen. Joseph was seen as the least among all his brothers. Yet he was chosen to be the one who provided food for them.
- This principle is evident in the teachings of Jesus and in the examples used. He said: "The Kingdom of God is like a grain of mustard seed that a man took and sowed in his garden, and it grew and became a tree, and the birds of the air made nests in its branches". (Mk. 13:19). "Truly, I say to you, as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to me" (Mt.25:45).
- Besides, we see the same principle employed by Jesus in his miracles too. From the five loaves and two fish he is able to feed thousands. The ordinary water he turns into wine. By using spittle and mud he restores the sight.

These examples from his teachings, actions and methodology tell us that there is nothing that is insignificant in the eyes of God. All that is under the sun has a worth as the creation of God. We human beings have the enhanced worth as the children of God. In so far as this worth of ours as the child of God is concerned, we are all equal. The CEO in the office chair and the servant who cleans the office room share the same dignity as the child of God.

However, do we not sometimes consider the other as insignificant? There is no one insignificant before God. Annunciation teaches us that God's perspectives are different. To be pleasing in the eyes of God is more important than to be pleasing in the eyes of the world. There is a natural inclination in us to be appreciated and recognized. Often we measure our worth and goodness based on the acceptance and appreciation we get from the others. But the eyes of God reach to the things beyond.

Even in our own very lives we consider perhaps certain things as insignificant and useless. But remember, God did not create anything insignificant and useless. Not knowing the usefulness of a thing, does not make it useless. The other person being unknown to you does not mean that he or she is irrelevant to you. Let us remember: If God can do such things in and through Mary, let us believe that He is capable of doing many things through you and me. One thing is needed: Our availability and our readiness saying: Behold here I am. Do unto me as you wish.

Other Assignments

Translation of *Introduction to the Devout Life

Fr. Ngowi Innocent MSFS is entrusted with the task of translating the Introduction to the Devout Life by our Patron St. Francis de Sales, into Swahili. He would pilot this project with the help of the scholastics, and experts in Swahili language and Christian spirituality. I thank Fr.

Innocent for accepting this challenging task and wish the team all the blessings.

May dear confreres, let us ardently pray for the successful completion of this project which we hope to take to press in January 2017. You are most welcome to share your suggestions and contributions to Fr. Innocent (innocentmsfs@gmail.com).

LCI gets Affiliation to De Sales University, USA.

Thanks to strenuous efforts of our confreres in LCI and with the blessings of our Superior General we have now our Philosophy Program at LCI affiliated to De Sales University in USA. The Memorandum of Agreement was signed on March 3, 2015 at LCI. This MOA is already approved by the Middle States Commission on Higher Education (MSCHE), the accrediting body. With this development the qualified students of 2016 graduation will be awarded a Degree in Philosophy from the De Sales University. Let us thank God for this great recognition given to us and make every effort to meet all the demands of academic and organizational excellence. Sincere congratulations to LCI Staff and the Students!

Fr. Kuzhupil Sebastian MSFS - honoured

In recognition of the unique work done by Fr. Kuzhupil Sebastian over the last two decades in providing holistic healing and allied health services, the Ministry of Health and Community Development of the United Republic of Tanzania, has conferred on him a certificate of honour. Along with it he is also given a permanent licence to practice medicine. Sincere congratulations to Fr. Sebastian on this achievement. May God continue to bless your hands to give the healing touch of the Lord for many. (Fr. Kuzhupil Sebastian is the founder of Mermier Holistic Healing Centre Morogoro. It serves every year a few thousands of people who need medical and spiritual assistance)

MSFS Environment Day

As we have decided in our Provincial Congress, we need to take concrete steps to contribute our mite to the protection of environment and the sustenance of the of nature as God's precious gift to us and for the generations to come. As suggested in the recent forum meetings, the Provincial Council has decided that we should observe MSFS Environment Day in each Apostolic community. Two days need to be set apart in order to celebrate this day both in the parishes and in educational institutions. I request you to discuss the matter in the community meetings and apostolic community meetings and to share the concrete things that you would do in this regard. Our activities should also include the faithful in the parishes, the our school children and their families.

True Easter Joy is born out of Pain

My dear Confreres,

At one time or other, we have experienced soul-ripping grief at the death of a loved one. In such a situation you would agree that time seems to stop. Nights are endless, days drag slowly. Saying goodbye gives birth to unutterable pain, but the days between death and funeral ceremony seem longer than usual. At one moment we wish if this ordeal be over!

Do I feel such emotional drain during the Holy Week? Do I really feel the struggle and death of a dear one in the person of Jesus?

The last days of Jesus' physical life here on earth! Do they mean something to me? Am I any time inspired to wrap a rough towel around my waist and serve others in humility as Jesus did at the washing of feet or similar things? What joy do I experience in my preparations for a sumptuous Easter Sunday Celebration! While some of us may not like much to contemplate the meaning of the last supper and the disposition of Jesus. Do we try to understand the pain of Mother Mary at the foot of the cross, and while holding the dead body of her beloved son in her lap?

I am certain that our Easter would be much more meaningful and Easter joy would be a real one, if we first took the time and concerted effort to walk thoughtfully through Jesus' last days and if we asked God to let us more deeply glimpse his agony of relinquishment in Gethsemane. Do we ever hear the human cry of Jesus "I am thirsty."?

As the preparations are on for the "Easter Joy", let us not ignore the feeble voice of someone near to us - who cries, "I am thirsty". If we take time and look around we would find someone thirsting for real love, human dignity, recognition, understanding, forgiveness, justice and compassion. That someone is not far from us. Perhaps that person is in our community! If we can quench the thirst of that brother or sister of ours, we would be walking the way of Jesus and our Easter Joy is there already at the time of quenching the thirst of someone who is really in need of that drink of love and compassion. Then we would realize that the real Easter Joy would be the joy emanating from the passion and suffering and not from the sumptuous celebrations of Easter.

Wishing you all a graceful celebration of the Easter,

Yours in the Lord our Saviour,

Fr. Johnson Kallidukil MSFS (Provincial MSFS East Africa)
