My dear Confreres,

Happy Feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary! The month of September is an important month for us, as we celebrate during this month the Feast of Mother of Sorrows as well as the Founder’s day. May our blessed Mother and our beloved Founder always intercede for every one of us and also for our mission and ministry in East Africa! I wish you all a Happy Feast of Mother of Sorrows and a happy Founder’s Day in anticipation!

YEAR OF ST. JOSEPH AND YEAR OF MISSIONS:
 Called to evangelize with a father’s heart after the model of St. Joseph

Pope Francis declared 2021 as the Year of St. Joseph. This coincides with the 150th anniversary of Pope Pius IX’s declaration of St Joseph as Patron of the Universal Church. Pope Francis also published an apostolic letter about St. Joseph, “Patris Corde,” which means “With a Father’s Loving Heart.” In it, he names St. Joseph’s many admirable qualities, for our imitation.

In the apostolic letter Pope Francis unveils St. Joseph as a father, who had a number of outstanding and admirable characteristics. He was a beloved father who was tender and loving. He was also an obedient father, an accepting father, and a creatively courageous father. We know, too, that he was a father of sacrifice, responsibility and self-gift. He was also a hard-working father and an unassuming one, a father in the shadows. In choosing to focus on St. Joseph, Pope Francis is prioritizing for the faithful a figure whose humility, faith, and patience are greatly needed during this time of global pandemic Covid 19.

In Patris Corde, Pope Francis notes that throughout his life, St. Joseph had to make many hidden sacrifices, both great and small, to protect and guide the Holy Family. Similarly, many ordinary people have made sacrifices in the face of great hardship due to Covid 19 to protect their family as well as the society. In proclaiming 2021 as the Year of St. Joseph, Pope Francis is reminding the faithful of the need for patience, humility, hard work, and closeness to Jesus through our trials.

Our Congregation is marking 2021 as the Year of Missions to revitalize the primordial apostolate of our Congregation following the missionary heritage bequeathed by our Patron and Founder. St. Joseph is a model for our missionary endeavours. During this Year of St. Joseph and the Year of Missions, we are reminded of our obligation to evangelize with a father's heart after the model of St. Joseph. He fully participated in the salvific plan of God like Mary and remained as the guardian of the Son of God through whom the eternal Father "destined us to be his sons through Jesus Christ" (Eph. 1:5) (Redemptoris Custos 1).

Emeritus Pope Benedict says that at the heart of the Evangelization is 1) Conversion, 2) The Kingdom of God, 3) Jesus Christ and 4) Eternal Life. St. Joseph is a model of faith who draws us to conversion through his faithful and focused response to God's call in his life. Just like Mary, St. Joseph also said "yes" to the will of God in his life by accepting Mary as his wife and her son Jesus. It required of him an "obedience of faith" (Rom.1:5) and a total conversion to do the will of God in his personal life. He remained always faithful to his commitment as the guardian of the mystery of God (Redemptoris Custos 4). St. Joseph is inviting us to become committed missionaries and faithful stewards of the missions entrusted to our care. As ministers of evangelization, we need to deepen our relationship with Christ, to proclaim his Word.

St. Joseph proclaimed the Kingdom of God through the authentic witness of his life. He had to undergo several trials in the process of being the foster father of the Son of God, be it the decision to take Mary as his wife, patiently bear with the troubles during the birth of Jesus, the seeking of refuge in Egypt to protect the Child Jesus or to sustain the Holy Family through his hard work. Joseph bore witness to the Kingdom of God which Jesus was yet to proclaim, by being a loving and obedient father, a just man and a faithful husband. He was an epitome of the values of the Kingdom of God. "Joseph found happiness not in mere self-sacrifice but in self-gift. In him, we never see frustration but only trust. His patient silence was the prelude to concrete expressions of trust." (Patris Corde). People address us "fathers". Are we really "fathers" to the people entrusted to our care? St. Joseph invites us to bear witness to the Kingdom of God by being loving, obedient, just, holy and trustworthy "fathers". His self-emptying and self-giving attitude always inspires us to be true missionaries.

Joseph knew that Jesus Christ, his adopted son, the one he received for supernatural adoption was his Lord and Saviour. After Mary, Joseph was the closest to Christ. Therefore, his relationship with Christ was, like Mary's, incredibly rich and profound. Much can be pondered from the silence of St. Joseph, but one thing is sure – his holiness was intensified and illumined through his life with Christ. Our lives likewise should be intensified and illumined through our encounter with the living God – especially in the Eucharist.

And finally, our ultimate goal is Eternal Life and St. Joseph was aware of this. His example and faithfulness show us that it is not in the big things, in recognition or wealth that one acquires the greatest of prizes. It is the final union with God and life everlasting with him that is our ultimate goal and to that goal all our endeavours should be geared.

St. Joseph who lived a life of holiness in union with God continues his role as the patron of the universal church. He is the model for us in living our missionary vocation. May St. Joseph inspire us and intercede for us in all our missionary endeavours empowering and transforming us and the world we live in.

Prayer to St Joseph by St Francis de Sales

Glorious St. Joseph, Spouse of Mary, grant us, we beseech thee, thy paternal protection, through the Heart of Jesus Christ. O, Thou whose infinite power reaches out to all our needs, rendering possible for us that which is impossible, look upon the concerns of thy children with the fatherly countenance. In the troubles and sorrows that afflict us, we have confident recourse to thee. Deign to take under thy loving protection this important and difficult endeavour, the cause of our worries, and dispose its success to the glory of God and to the benefit of His faithful servants.

Amen.
