Provincial Circular EAP – MT.30
Nov 27, 2021

My dear Confreres,

At the outset of the season of Advent, I wish you all a meaningful preparation for the celebration of the mystery of Incarnation of our Saviour, Jesus Christ! May he fill our hearts and minds with faith, hope and charity so that Christ may be born in us and live through us!

ADVENT: A SEASON OF HOPE

Pope Francis says that “Advent is a continuous call to hope. It reminds us that God is present in history to lead it to its ultimate goal and to its fullness, which is the Lord Jesus Christ himself. God is present in the history of humanity, He is the ‘God-with-us’, He walks beside us to support us.” Advent is a time of waiting and expectation; a season of quiet anticipation and preparation. We are waiting for our Lord to come into the world as a baby, born of the Virgin Mary in Bethlehem. We are also preparing for his return, his second coming, to restore harmony and right relationship to all creation. Advent is the symbol of yearning for God to come and set the world right with perfect harmony, justice, truth and peace. It is the season of hope.

Advent is a time when we are invited to intensely prepare ourselves through prayer. While Lent emphasizes a spirit of repentance through prayer and fasting, Advent’s prayers are prayers of humble devotion and commitment, prayers of gladness and joyful expectation, prayers that express the anticipation for the light of Christ coming into the world. We are invited to reflect on those Advent readings from the Scriptures that reveal a strong prophetic tone of accountability and judgment. Just as those stewards who were found faithful in small matters by the master, we too are confident that we will be found faithful and will enter the joy of the master.

During Advent we anticipate the Lord's coming with hope. It is this hope, however faint it may be at times, that keeps us from despair and the darkness of sin and its destructiveness. It is a hope that urges us to be kind, loving and compassionate toward one another. It is a hope that encourages our faith in a merciful God who continues to pour his grace upon us. We don't know when Christ will come again to bring human history to its completion. But we celebrate with gladness the great promise of Advent and we rekindle that positive, joyful spirit within us because we know, as prophet Zechariah prophesied, that the light of Christ will shine on all who sit in darkness and the shadow of death, and He will guide our feet into the way of peace. I wish you all a grace-filled season of Advent!

FOR A SYNODAL CHURCH: COMMUNION, PARTICIPATION, AND MISSION

The Synod on Synodality is a two-year process of listening and dialogue which began with a solemn opening ceremony in Rome on October 9 and 10, 2021. The Synodal process will conclude in 2023. Pope Francis invites the entire Church to reflect on a theme that is decisive for its life and mission. "It is precisely this path of synodality which God expects of the Church of the third millennium." This journey, which follows in the wake of the Church's on-going "renewal" proposed by the Second Vatican Council, is both a gift and a task: by journeying together and reflecting together on the journey that has already been made, the Church will be able to learn through her experience which processes can help her to live communion, to achieve participation, to open herself to mission.

The ecclesiology of the People of God is the core idea behind the Synod which was first introduced by Vatican Council II and has been emphasized many times by Pope Francis. This idea implies that the relationship between the People of God and the Church is not hierarchical anymore, that it is differentiated and complementary. It implies that bishops need religious and laypeople to accomplish their mission in the Church. The Synod is expected to enhance co-responsibility at all realms of the Church.

The novelty of the Synod is that it has involved theologians in the process of listening and discernment aimed at creating this new Synodal Church and the inclusion of theological reflection in the structures of the Church. In this way we don't have a theological reflection on one side, and people, on the other. It helps the Church to implement the decisions of the Synod into the real structures of the Church. It will bring about a new "ecclesial culture". Synodality is about diversity. We hope for a real dialogue between different sensibilities in the Church, through a consensus process.

I request you to kindly actively participate in the Synodal meetings of your respective dioceses and parishes to bring about a new ecclesial culture in the Church.

EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL CHAPTER 2022:
FOUR PAPERS FOR STUDY AND REFLECTION

Very Rev. Fr. Abraham Vettuvellil, our Superior General writes: In the light of the decisions of the XX General Chapter 2019, with the theme 'MSFS, Wake up to the Basics', we are doing our best to study the basics of our Congregational life with a focus on the history, Spirit of the Founder, Charism, and the Principles implied in our Constitution and General Directory. It is an opportunity to continually educate us on our identity as MSFS, and the values and heritage of our Congregation. We hope this exercise will give us a deeper awareness of our basics. This will hopefully wake us up in turn to deepen our understanding of the basics of our consecrated life as MSFS and apply them in our apostolates and life in communities.

The objective of studying and reflecting on these documents (personally and communally) is: To gather different perspectives (including those not included in the documents) in order to make it comprehensive, focused, and relevant for application in today's context.

After personal study of the documents, confreres come together as a community (local or apostolic) to discuss the outcome of your personal study. After discussion in the community, please respond to the two questions:

1. What observations and comments would you like to add to make this document more focused and relevant for our times?.
2. Indicate what aspects of the Founder's Spirit need to be highlighted and applied today in our ministries, apostolates, and community life?

In short, we follow these four steps:

1. Personal study and reflection of the document
2. Discussion on the outcome of the study in the community level
3. Responding to the questions based on the document.
4. The Provincial/Mission Superior will collate the responses and send them to the Secretary General of the Chapter.

GRADUATION OF CATECHISTS

After three months of intensive catechetical training, thirty-one Catechists graduated in Lumen Christi Institute, Arusha on 20th November, 2021. The Holy Mass was presided over by Rt. Rev. Prosper Lyimo, the Auxiliary Bishop of the Catholic Archdiocese of Arusha along with all the staff members of LCI. During the Eucharistic celebration the Catechists were awarded certificates of completion. In a meaningful ceremony after the homily, Bishop blessed and commissioned them officially for their ministry. The graduated Catechists hail from the various dioceses in Tanzania or Kenya. The Bishop appreciated Lumen Christi Institute for organizing catechetical courses since 2012 for the effective evangelization of the people of Tanzania and the neighbouring countries. In his homily Bishop reminded the catechists about the importance of holding on to one's faith and their call to serve and to be the shining light of the Gospel in their families and in the parishes or sub-stations. The mass was followed by a family dinner for which the entire LCI community came together. The programme ended with a thanksgiving speech by Fr. Thomas Kochalumchuvattil, the director of LCI and 'Risale' by the Catechists.

Salesian Thought

Our heart is the source of our action. As our heart is, so are our actions. Whoever wins a person's heart has won the whole person. Yet even the heart, where we wish to begin, must be instructed. John the Baptist wants us to fill our fearful hearts with faith and hope.

Certain fears and anxieties, when excessive, unnerve the heart and often lead to discouragement. These are the ditches and valleys that must be filled with confidence and hope to prepare for Our Lord's coming.
