Conclusion

Let us trust in the LORD with all our heart, and let us not rely on our own strength. In all our ways acknowledge the LORD, and He will make straight our paths (Prov. 3: 5-6). So, let us not fear, for the LORD is with us, let us not be afraid, for the LORD is our God; He will strengthen us, He will help us, He will uphold us with His victorious right hand. (Isa. 41:10). For, He is the good shepherd. He knows His own and we know Him as our LORD (Jn. 10:14). We know that all things work together for good for those who love God, who are called according to His purpose. (Rom. 8:28) Therefore, do not let our hearts be troubled. Let us believe in God, believe also in Jesus (Jn. 14:1).

Yours devotedly in Christ Jesus,

James
